
LSC Alumni News Announcements

Published in the Duluth News Tribune - December 2008

Fulda, Parks Engagement

Jennie Fulda and Erik Parks, both of Duluth, plan to be married March 7 in Christ Lutheran Church in Duluth.

The future bride, a 2005 graduate of Denfeld High School in Duluth, attended Lake Superior College in Duluth. She provides independent living services for the disabled for At Home Living in Duluth.

The future groom, a 2003 graduate of Denfeld High School, is attending Lake Superior College and is pursuing his bachelor's degree in architecture. He is a sergeant in the Army Reserves, which he joined in 2003. He works at Lake Avenue Cafe in Duluth.

Bjerklie, Lindberg Wedding

Dana Bjerklie and Dan Lindberg, both of Duluth, were married Aug. 9 in Faith United Lutheran Church in Iron.

The bride, a 2000 graduate of Cherry High School in Iron, graduated from Hibbing Community College in 2002 with a dental assistant associate degree. She is an orthodontic dental assistant at Arrowhead Orthodontics in Duluth.

The groom, a 2001 graduate of Hermantown High School, is pursuing a physical therapy assistant associate degree at Lake Superior College in Duluth. He is a restorative aide for Golden Oaks Advanced Assisted Living Plus in Proctor.

Sandok, Baker Wedding

Lee Sandok and Harry Baker, both of Superior, were married Sept. 13 in Cathedral of Christ the King in Superior.

The bride, a 1999 graduate of McGregor High School, graduated from the College of St. Scholastica in Duluth in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in communication and theater arts. She is an assistant building permit technician for the city of Superior and she is a disc jockey for Pro-Sound & Light Show in Duluth.

The groom, a 1995 graduate of Superior Senior High School, graduated from Lake Superior College in Duluth in 1996 with a broadcasting diploma. He is a photojournalist for KQDS Fox21 in Duluth.

Aili, Bergstedt Wedding

Brooke Aili of Esko and Orrie Bergstedt of Cromwell were married May 18 in Apostolic Lutheran Church in Esko.

The bride, a 2004 graduate of Esko High School, graduated from Bethel University in St. Paul, Minn., in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in sociocultural studies. She is a personal care assistant for ARC Northland.

The groom, a 2005 graduate of Cromwell High School, is pursuing an associate degree in surgical technology at Lake Superior College in Duluth. He is a landscaping assistant for J & P Landscape in Esko.

Tuura, Raivala wedding

Lydia Tuura of Oulu and Jeff Raivala of Tripp, Wis., were married June 28 in Duluth.

The bride, a 2004 graduate of South Shore High School in Port Wing, graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Stout in Menomonie this year with a bachelor's degree in dietetics. She is a dietetic intern at the Minneapolis VA Medical Center.

The groom, a 2000 graduate of South Shore High School, graduated from Lake Superior College in Duluth in 2002 with a diploma in building construction. He is a carpenter for Ken Hiukka Customer Builders in Hermantown.

Traen, Madill wedding

Kimberly Traen and Jeff Madill, both of Duluth, were married Oct. 4 during an outdoor ceremony at Spirit Mountain in Duluth.

The bride, a 1999 graduate of Litchfield High School, graduated from Ridgewater College in Willmar, Minn., in 2002 with an associate degree in veterinary technology. She is a certified veterinary technician at Airport Animal Hospital in Duluth.

The groom, a 1996 graduate of Duluth East High School, graduated from Lake Superior College in Duluth in 1999 with an associate degree in civil engineering technology. He is a transportation specialist for the Minnesota Department of Transportation in Duluth.