

2022-2023 Separation of Income Form for Dependent Students

This worksheet is used when a student's parent completed a tax form with a spouse whose income should not to be considered when filing for financial aid. (Examples: parents filed jointly but are now separated/divorced; parents filed jointly, but one of the parents is now deceased.) Signed copies of your parents' 2020 federal tax form, if you have not already submitted a 2020 IRS tax return transcript, and all W-2 forms are required with this application.

- Please explain why only one of your parents' incomes should be used when filing for financial aid:
