

GLOBAL EDUCATION AT LAKE SUPERIOR COLLEGE – KNOW YOUR WORLD!

VISIT FRANCE and ITALY

MAY 15-25, 2018

Travel with us to Paris, Florence, and Rome next spring

We will stroll along the Seine to Notre Dame and the Eiffel Tower, take in Florence from its medieval roots to its Renaissance splendor, witness the ruins of ancient Rome and experience what the Romans like to call “la dolce vita.” Learn how to navigate among the locals in these historic European cities and develop life skills that will serve you anywhere in the world.

We will spend four nights in Paris, then fly to Florence for a two night stay, and catch a train to Rome for three nights.

COST: $3800 (subject to change) Includes all flights, trains, double-occupancy hotels, tuition and student fees, most meals, emergency medical insurance, group ground transportation, museum and historic site entrance fees, and shuttle to and from MSP; does not include passport fees, spending money, five lunches and four dinners, or optional single occupancy hotel supplement.

COURSE: GS 1200 (1 cr.) Explorations Abroad: France and Italy 2017. Educational travel is key here—you will learn a lot about the history of these “museum cities” before landing on the ground, which will greatly enhance your visit

LEADERS: Paul Richgruber and Gretchen Flaherty— knowledgeable and experienced world travelers

SCHOLARSHIP: Limited number of $500 LSC Foundation International Studies grants available to qualifying students
