

POET Level 4: Online Teaching Faculty Inquiry Group (FIG)

Description:

This group is open to faculty members who have taught online at least five years and would like to explore new technologies and discuss pedagogy and issues related to online teaching and learning. The group will meet every two weeks for the regular academic year (September to May). Resources and discussions will be shared in a D2L Brightspace shell.

In this FIG, participants will:

- Discuss issues related to online teaching and student success
- Participate in hands-on demonstrations of D2L Brightspace tools and other teaching technologies and software
- Present their own online courses to the group for feedback to improve teaching and learning
- Evaluate new technologies and tools for their relevance to teaching in a specific discipline or subject
- Implement new technologies and teaching strategies into their online classes
- Share resources and ideas with the group
